

Resource-based Learning

1 Definition

- Resource-based learning is defined as "planned educational programs that actively involve students in the meaningful use of a wide range of appropriate print, nonprint and human resources." (Saskatchewan School Libray Association, 1998)
- planned educational opportunity

2 Types of resources

3 Primary Resources

i) Research Approach

- Text
- Images
- Video
- Sound

ii) emulate a library

iii) ideal for areas of knowledge that are ill-structured

iv) digital environment

4 Experienced based resource

- Experiential Learning
- case based learning
- problem based learning
- evidence based learning
- field work
- practicals
- simulations
- for the students that have a good information handling skills

5 Structured Resources

a) Structured Learning

- Tutorial
- Exercises
- Quizzes
- Guides
- pedagogically designed material with a highly focused learning route

6 Strength of RBL

- #### a) flexibility and in the number of options